Song and instrumental numbers.

Sheet music—

Special, 12c. copy.

YOU hear a catchy little strain of music, and probably say: "That's pretty. What is it?" The wise one, who is up to date, replies, "That's one of the latest vaudeville hits; they have it down at KANN'S." And so we have—the very latest of the day; and they are offered tomorrow for the above-named price. Here are four leaders:

"COULD YOU READ MY HEART"—12c.

"NOT BECAUSE YOUR HAIR IS CURLY"—12c.

"I'M GOING RIGHT BACK TO CHICAGO"—12c.

"WON'T YOU THROW A KISS TO ME, LINDA?"—12c.

And a number of other favorites, as follows:

Vocal, 12c.

"Won't You Come Over to My House?"

"Cheyenne."

"Why Don't You Try?"

"Two Little Sailor Boys."

"Down in the Everglades."

"Sally, I'm Wise."

"I Like You, Too."

"Campmeetin' Time."

"Everybody Gives Me Good Advice."

"Iola." (Vocal).

Instrumental, 12c.

"Louise Waltzes." (New.)

"Sleepy Lou." (Two-step.)

"Shy-Try." (New.)

"The Gunmaster."

"Breath of the Rose."

"Owatanna."

"Cherry."

"Popples."

"Hearties and Maaks."

"Iola." (Instrumental).
